

Compassionate Communities Halesworth

Dying Matters awareness week 10-16th of May

Every year Dying Matters awareness week is held to encourage Conversations in Communities around death, dying, grief and caring.

The Pear Tree Centre together with individuals, schools and organisations in Halesworth are offering online and in person Events during that week. To open up conversations which recognise that by talking about end of life we can reduce the stigma and loneliness experienced during this difficult time of our lives with our neighbours, friends and families.

Events in Halesworth include

Heart trail to Pear Tree Centre for a cuppa and cake 10-16th May – 11-3pm

200 hearts will be hung around Halesworth, leading to the Pear Tree Centre on Bungay Rd. Here you can leave a memory on the tree in the garden to honour and remember a loved one. Seva and her team welcome you to share cake and a cuppa and chat in a safe and friendly environment. Hearts have been decorated by Children from local primary schools, Kinda Forest School together with The Pear Tree Centre visitors and volunteers, Halesworth Volunteer Centre members and local businesses and residents.
